Dear Paul:

The enclosed newspaper clipping appeared on the front page of the Shreveport Journal on March 13th. The reporter had visited the Bossier Parish Court-house and noticed that civil action was pending against Michael Wayne Keys. He then called me to find out what I knew.

I told him that I was unsure of any court date. He then asked me what the Boy Scouts of America was doing to prevent the same thing from happening again -- thus, my remarks.

I will keep you informed.

Cordially,

Carlos del Hierro

Boy Scouts council toughens standards for picking leaders

Result of charges against former scoutmaster

By ERIK SANDIN
Journal Staff Writer

Four lawsuits against the local Boy Scouts of America council and a former scout leader involving alleged sexual assaults against troop members are among the cases scheduled for civil jury trials beginning today in Bossier district court.

The lawsuits seek a total of $55 million in damages from Michael Wayne Keys, the Norwela Council and the Boy Scouts of America.

The suits were filed nearly two years ago by the parents of several scouts and one adult scout who all allege Keys sexually assaulted troop members and that the Norwela Council did not investigate allegations or take action against Keys after parents complained.

Keys was scoutmaster of a Haughton troop until he was dismissed in early February 1987 following complaints from parents of troop members.

He later pleaded guilty in Bossier district court to three counts of indecent behavior with a juvenile after he was arrested in late February 1987 for assaulting a 9-year-old boy at the victim's Bossier City home.

While the suits have slowly and quietly progressed through the courts for two years, Norwela Council leaders quickly moved to toughen their requirements and the screening process for potential leaders.

"We've got a brand new application," Norwela executive Carlos del Hierro said. "It's got a lot of questions. It asks for background information. We've gotten extremely tough in selecting leaders."

Del Hierro said scout leader applicants are asked questions about their scouting background, driving and criminal records, experience with other youth organizations, residences for the past five years and current memberships with community groups, and they must provide five character references. Del Hierro screens each application, then sends it to the BSA national office for further investigation.

"What we do here ... the organization signs off on this as well as I," he said. "Then it's sent to national office in Dallas. If there's a problem, it's kicked back here."

If a problem is found with an application, del Hierro said the applicant is removed from consideration as a scout leader.

In the six months that the new application has been used, del Hierro said only a few people have been dropped from consideration as leaders because of information on the forms.

"Locally here in Shreveport, the Norwela Council, I'd say about two or three," he said. "I've heard of some cases where people won't fill the form out."

In addition to the new application procedure, del Hierro said the council held a child abuse awareness seminar with area scout leaders and camp staff last November at LSU-Shreveport.

"It was a positive type meeting on a negative subject," he said.

Del Hierro also said he personally investigates all allegations of abuse made against Norwela Council leaders.

"I step into the situation," he said. "I follow up. I interview people I try to establish the legitimacy of it. I relieve the leader of duty until he can prove his innocence."

He added that any information he comes up with is given to the state Child Protection Agency for investigation.

"I call the child protection agency and they deal with it," he said.

Del Hierro said that based on past investigations, two leaders in Shreveport and Bossier were suspended and later dropped out of the program after allegations were made against them. He added that he does not believe criminal charges were filed against either person.

"They're (child protection authorities) a very confidential group of people," he said. "If there was something that happened, they would have notified me, and I didn't hear a thing from them."

Del Hierro said the changes in the way the Norwela Council picks its troop leaders are meant to be tough.

"It's got to be tough; it's awfully important to us," he said. "I don't want it to come out ... that we're persecuting people. But we can't pussyfoot around on this."

Despite the new tougher standards and the publicity about Keys case and subsequent lawsuits, del Hierro said interest in scouting local remains high.

"It hasn't hurt us that much," he said. "The enthusiasm and positive image of the Boy Scouts hasn't been affected."

Department of Fire Prevention and Control

A one-story frame house in the 2800 block of S Avenue was reported at 12:18 a.m. on May 12, 1967, by 12:38 a.m., said Assistant Chief W. F. Melonis, Jr. He said the house is owned by James and Sissy Bolden, and that no one was home when the fire broke out. The blaze started in the living room and in a back bedroom at the same time. Heavy damage was reported to both the building and its contents.

Ex-Scout leader pleads

A former Haughton Boy Scout troop scoutmaster, who had previously pleaded innocent to charges of indecent behavior with juveniles, changed his plea to guilty during an arraignment hearing in Bossier District Court Tuesday.

Michael Wayne Keys, 29, of the 3200 block of Deerfield in Haughton, entered the plea before Bossier District Judge Monty Wyche. He was charged in connection with sexual misconduct with juvenile boys in the Haughton and Bossier City area.

Assistant District Attorney Jim Bullars said Keys faces 21 years in jail. A sentencing date has not been set.

Scoutmaster accused of molesting 4

By WILLARD WOODS
Journal Staff Writer

Additional charges were lodged today against a Boy Scout troop scoutmaster who was arrested Wednesday afternoon for alleged indecent behavior with a 9-year-old.

Michael Wayne Keys, 29, of the 3200 block of Deerfield in Haughton was arrested by Bossier City police in connection with the alleged assault of a 9-year-old boy at his Bossier City home. Keys originally was booked into the Bossier City jail Wednesday and charged with one count of indecent behavior with a juvenile.

Keys was booked into the parish jail on additional charges this morning following a Bossier Parish sheriff's investigation, spokesman Richard Carroil said.

The suspect was charged with three additional counts of indecent behavior with a juvenile in connection with sexual incidents occurring since 1983, Carroil said.

The first indecent behavior with a juvenile charge involving a 9-year-old was for an alleged sexual incident that reportedly occurred Feb. 16 at the boy's home. The boy is not a member of the troop, but his brother is, police said.

The additional charges are the result of an investigation prompted by the parents' complaints concerning alleged sexual misconduct with juvenile boys from the Haughton area from 1983 to the fall of 1986, Carroil said.

The troop's 12 members vary in age with the youngest scout being 11.

Key had been scoutmaster at the troop for three years before he was dismissed about a week ago following complaints from the parents.

FEBRUARY 22, 1987

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN;

An emergency meeting was called on February 19, 1987 to discuss an incident involving one of the younger scouts. It was revealed that a sexual advance was made against the younger boy's wishes. Following the meeting, the Scout Master was confronted with the accusation and confirmed it. Subsequently our three boys were asked if they had any knowledge of any other activities of a similar nature.

Advances had been made by Mike Keys toward [REDACTED] our oldest son, age 14, when on a camping trip to Arkansas in January of 1987. Mike started wrestling with [REDACTED] and put his hands on [REDACTED] private parts. [REDACTED] said he rejected the advances and told Mike never to touch him again like that and that he didn't like it.

Advances had also been made by Mike Keys toward [REDACTED] our middle son who is age 12. This occurred for about the last year. It started with Mike Keys putting his hands on [REDACTED] legs which made him feel very uncomfortable. The last time it happened was about three weeks ago. Mike Keys started wrestling with [REDACTED] and grabbed him between his legs in his private area. [REDACTED] pulled away very confused by the whole incident.

Our son [REDACTED], age 9 at the time, informed us that Mike Keys had been putting his hands on the inside of his legs for a lot of months. He wasn't sure for how long. Mike would come over to our house on the average of once a week, usually on the weekends and use our computer. [REDACTED] would sit next to him and watch, sometimes we would notice Mike would pull him on his lap to play computer games. We never thought much about this, just that Mike seemed to have a lot of patience with younger children. Sometime in January, 1987, Mike Keys came to the house at night when we were going out the door. All five of the kids were at home, including the 17 year old. We felt secure in letting Mike in to use the computer. I guess we were gone for several hours. It was at this time that Mike went over to the couch where [REDACTED] was sitting and watching T.V. Mike put his hands on the inside of [REDACTED] shorts and underwear and began to fondle his privates. This according to [REDACTED] maybe lasted about a minute when at that time [REDACTED] got up and went to his room. Mike had said some things that scared [REDACTED]. Several of the comments were as follows: Mike grabbing [REDACTED] privates on the outside of his pants saying "I'll rip it off meaning his privates". Another comment was "I'll pick you up by it and swing you around", again referring to his privates.

Our boys did not come forward until we had questioned them. They felt intimidated. One comment was that we hated to say anything about what Mike Keys had done to us because we had trust in him. He was our scout master. Our parents had trust in him. [REDACTED] felt that by saying anything he would feel very embarrassed by what had happened. All our boys are very relieved to have this in the open.

This statement is intended to serve as formal complaint.

Bossier City Boy Scout leader arrested

By RON COLE 2/26/87 (Page 7)
The Times

The leader of a Bossier City Boy Scout troop was booked into the Bossier City Jail on Wednesday afternoon on a charge of indecent behavior with a juvenile.

Michael Wayne Keys, 29, of Haughton, was arrested in connection with an incident involving a 9-year-old boy allegedly molested earlier this month, according to Bossier City police spokesman Gary Hines.

The boy is the brother of one of the scouts in the troop, Hines said.

The arrest was made after several groups of parents met with Bossier City police Monday, Hines said.

The troop has about 12 members, age 11 and older, according to officials at the Northwest Louisiana Council of the Boy Scouts.

Keys was scoutmaster of the troop for about three years. He was dismissed a week ago after parents met with Norwela leaders and discussed complaints against the leader.

Roy Henderson, Norwela assistant scout executive, said, "The parents brought it to our attention, we took action and turned it over to police."

Norwela Scout Executive Benny C. High called the arrest "terrible."

"We're concerned about the fallout and the people involved," High said. "Obviously, we're concerned about the boy and the family, and we want to try to maintain the program for that area."

Norwela covers nine parishes in Northwest Louisiana and includes 10,000 scouts and about 2,500 volunteers.

"This is terrible for all scout people," High said. "We have a hard enough time soliciting interest and volunteers in good times."

Ex-Scout leader charged again

By RON COLE 2/27/87
The Times

The former leader of a Bossier City Boy Scout troop was booked Thursday into the Bossier Parish Jail on three additional counts of indecent behavior with a juvenile.

Michael Wayne Keys, 29, of Haughton, was arrested in connection with three incidents involving juvenile boys over age 10 in the Haughton area, Bossier Parish Sheriff's Department Lt. Richard Carroll said.

The parish arrest comes a day after Bossier City police arrested Keys on a charge of indecent behavior with a juvenile.

That arrest was in connection with an incident involving a 9-year-old boy who was allegedly molested earlier this month in his home. The boy is the brother of one of the scouts in the troop.

Carroll said the new charges stem from incidents that occurred as long as four years ago and as recent as the fall of 1986. He would not say if the three cases involved boys in the scout troop.

Keys is held in the parish jail in lieu of $20,460 bond on all four charges, Carroll said.

Bossier City's arrest of Keys Wednesday day concluded a three-day investigation sparked by complaints from parents about sexual misconduct of their children.

Police turned other complaints over to Bossier Parish and Shreveport investigators.

Keys was scoutmaster of the troop for about three years. He was dismissed Feb. 19 after parents complained about Keys to leaders of the Northwest Louisiana Council of the Boy Scouts.

The troop has about 12 members, age 11 and older. Norwela covers nine parishes in Northwest Louisiana and includes 10,000 scouts and about 2,500 volunteers.

Ex scoutmaster pleads guilty to sex misconduct

A former Haughton Boy Scout troop scoutmaster pleaded guilty Tuesday in Bossier district court to charges involving alleged sexual misconduct with juvenile boys in the Haughton and Bossier City area.

Michael Wayne Keys, 29, of the 3200 block of Deerfield in Haughton entered the guilty plea to three counts of indecent behavior with a juvenile.

Bossier District Judge Monty Wyche accepted the guilty plea and ordered a presentencing investigation. No sentencing date has been set.

Keys was arrested Feb. 25 in connection with the alleged assault of a 9-year-old boy at the boy's Bossier City home. Upon further investigation, additional charges were added.

Keys had been scoutmaster at the troop for three years before he was dismissed in early February following complaints from parents.

the Journal's exclusive computer graphics gives you three figures: today's, yesterday's and yesterday's adjusted to today's prices. Today's figures puts everything in perspective.

On 7-7-82 MK visited Set Off for material, and possibly to set a date for Trip camp at this mo.

During a break in conversation, B.H. called me aside and showed me a note stating that MK was dismissed from the camp staff at T L J in Monroe and to be cautious in working with this person.

On 7-8-82 at 10AM I asked B.H. for permission to call Monroe Cuel and to talk to SE for details. He agreed and I called.

Spoke to C.C., ASE and he told me he was not personally involved but shared with me what he knew of the situation.

1. The Camp Ranger at T L J came upon MK and a young Set in an empty camp site. It was stated that the Set was cornered in this site. Also, the Set ~~was~~ allegedly used these words to the Ranger "Yes, I'm glad you are here." MK was confronted by ~~unknown~~ person, possibly Camp director, about situation. MK allegedly said "This is the first time anything like this has ever happened." MK was fired on the spot and given 1 hr to leave camp, which he did with no objections.

2. CC told me that he met MK in L.C. La. where MK was ASAT T16 in Sulphur. Top Comm requested MK quit and he did. Seems that over a 3 yr period, he became too friendly w/ younger boys. While they know of no concrete overt actions, MK actions were suspect. Not wanting to have a N.O. Encl type scandal, they asked MK to quit. CC gave me the name of Ned Boorne, SM T16 in Sulphur as a reference.

3. CC. also stated that prior to camp opening (T16) he recognized MK and advised the camp director of what he knew. No action was taken.

Approx 11:30 AM on 7-8-82 I called Mr Boorne and asked for info. He stated that at the time he was SA of T16 but ~~was~~ ^{is} currently serving in a different job. Any way while there was nothing specific or concrete, they felt his actions over a 3 yr period to be odd and hence suspect. They noticed a tendency for MK to get off from the zip w/ younger sts, especially at odd times. Parents complained that MK would show up at their homes, unexpectedly at odd times and specifically when the parents were not home. A few sts complained to him that MK put his hands on them or had touched them in ways they did not appreciate. Over a period of time they became concerned and decided to avoid a possible problem and the Comm asked MK to quit. Mr Barnes did say I could give his name and telephone # to any legitimate concerned person. He stated that in no way ~~the~~ had MK did anything specifically wrong and that if this man had any inclinations toward homosexuality, that was his right personally as guaranteed by the Courts of the land, and he had no quarrel w/ that. He did state that he felt this type of activity (Homosexuality) was inconsistent w/ the policy and purposes of setting.

Approximately 1:15 PM on 7-8-82, I visited w/ Rev Jim McDaniel, preacher for the Spawning Partner. I explained to him what I had learned and that I was concerned about future meetings & activities. J.M.D. stated that Homosexuality was not condoned by his Ch and hence the matter would need looking into. Since I shared info w/ him before I could share it w/ B.H. who had left the office, I told J.M.D. that I thought we would have a mtg w/ MK tell him what has come to our attention and ask him to quit.

PERSONAL & CONFIDENTIAL

SUBJECT: Michael W. Keys

Dear Benny:

Thank you for the information which you recently sent concerning the above-named individual. This will be most helpful to us in setting up a file and refusing registration should attempts be made at a later time.

I am enclosing a Confidential Record Sheet which I would like to have completed, which will help us to identify Mr. Keys should he move to another location and attempt registration. This will also help people in the future, should neither you nor I be in our present jobs.

When the legal action is completed against Mr. Keys, we would like to have the final disposition and also the sentencing that takes place. This will then complete the file and give us all the information which we need.

Thanks so much for your help in preparing a very complete case to protect the youth of America.

CONF014440

I Mc N asked me to keep him posted + that possibly they might hold off any actions until after we met w/ M.K. I then left.

One other thing, I wanted the Ch to know what I knew, because MK had mentioned on Wed, that he might be hired as a Youth Director for the Ch.

On or abt 3:30 PM 7-8-82 I shared w/ R.H. + B.H. what I had learned and abt my visit to the Ch. They advised me it would be best not to confront MK with what we know since it is all hear say, nothing ever having been documented as regard wrong doing. It was suggested that I suggest to the Ch that if no ground rules exist as to meetings and camp out that the Ch or sponsor with the Top Comm + S.A. make up and agree on ground rules. One such rule is to never go on any outing w/o at least 3 male adults. Besides mutual protection of self action, if there were an injury and a Sct or Scta had to be taken to a hospital, one adult could drive, one adult could administer aid to the injured, and one adult could still be w/ the other boys to supervise and help keep things going.

Another rule might be to have more than one adult present at all meetings, to help keep order and to perhaps teach self skills or counsel site needing help.

As regards possible employment by the Ch. for R.H. If they felt the need to investigate any further than what they normally do, that would be their prerogative.

In a 3 way telephone conversation w/ J.M.D. R.H. and myself the Ch. was informed of the above.

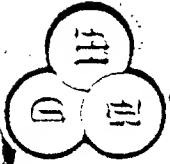

In ending this conversation after R.H. got off the line. J.M.D. asked for the name & telephone # of the person I had gotten info from. He also asked if he could use my name if any questions needed to be asked of me. I agreed to this.
